This channel will make your feet move out of your comfort zone. We are Shivanshu (Shu) and Monika (MJ), travel vloggers. We are a married couple who are into full time jobs. We love traveling and exploring places. We not just see a place, we experience it. For that we walk, talk, eat, trek, cycle, swim, jump, sing, dance and what not. We try to include something offbeat in our trips. Watch our travel videos to know better. We are sure you will love the way we travel. We have also documented the itinerary and budget details of the places we visit on our website www.2itchyfeets.com to help you with planning your trip. You will find it very useful. The videos and blogs of 2itchyfeets includes tips on places to travel, destination guides, itinerary details, hotel recommendations, cafes/ restaurant recommendations but all with a personal story line. Our focus is to help travelers planning their trips. Contact - work@2itchyfeets.com
