

Ruchi China to India

YOUTUBE @ruchiinchina India, Goa

Hello visitor. I am an Indian woman with a Chinese husband and have been living in China for the past 6 years. I lived in Shanghai for a year and then moved to Guangzhou and now I am back in Shanghai. I started posting videos in 2020 after the pandemic started in order to counteract the dislike of China I that I saw spreading in my country & also to share my experiences here with those who are interested. My primary goal is to show China through Indian eyes separate from what the popular media says. My son is 5 years old and he can be seen in my videos regularly but he is not the focus of my videos. When he goes to school, my content is mostly about food and my daily routine, which may include activities with my son, my husband's cooking, my experiments in the kitchen and outdoor activities.
